AUDIO/NARRATION

Tempo Tickets provides the power of your ticket sales and box office management at your fingertips.

Our platform offers the fastest door entry in the industry, automatically increases your attendance through social media, and is easy to learn and use.

Thousands of moving parts must come together behind the scenes, working in perfect harmony at just the right time to make any event a success. Managing and tracking ticket sales and effectively admitting patrons can be the most complicated and important part of the process.

With Tempo Tickets, there's Nothing to prepare: To admit people to your event, turn on the tablet and boot up the app, and run your event. Simple as that.

Our fast and simple single-page event setup offers control and customization over every aspect of ticket sales and management.

- You set the prices and fees
- Create unlimited ticket options, promo codes, and automatic price bumps

You can even include survey questions to gain valuable marketing information.

After customizing your event details, the system will instantly create your own ticket page with a custom link.

With Tempo Tickets, we have the Fastest doors: Your patrons will spend less time waiting in line. Use our tablet fleet to admit thousands to your event without breaking a sweat.

With Tempo Tickets, we have the best customer experience:

Ticket purchasing should look good and work great. It should be fast and it should be easy. It should just work, all the time. That's what we do.

When someone visits your ticketing page on Tempo Tickets, they'll find all the information they need including:

- Your logo or banner.
- The name, date, time and location for your event.
- A link to your own website
- Ticket prices and options.

Ticket buyers can LIKE and FOLLOW your own organization's pages directly from the ticketing process which quickly and effectively increases your social media following.

Once purchase is confirmed, tickets can be printed at home, shown on a smartphone, and patrons are automatically added to our digital will call list available on every check in tablet in case they forget or lose their ticket.

Our proprietary ticket printing system which is many times faster than traditional ticket printers and allows for beautiful custom souvenir quality ticket stock at a low cost.
